

YOUTH IN TRANSITION ART SHOW

The State Youth Council is having a “Recovery” art exhibit in December at the Rio Grande in Salt Lake City. We would like to extend this opportunity to other youth state wide!

We are accepting all forms of art, from photography,
sketches, paintings, pottery, jewelry, whatever artistic form youth, 16-25, use to represent their recovery.

To participate in this art exhibit youth MUST have their art work submitted with an entry form by Dec 4 at the latest! Youth can turn in their art work to the PASSAGES facilitators, to the State NAMI office between 9 am & 3 pm (1600 West 2200 South, Suite 202 West Valley City, Utah 84119)or contact Michelle Vance to arrange a different drop off.

No entries will be accepted without a complete entry form
Youth may send in more than one entry, but if we run out of room, multiple art pieces may not be displayed

YOUTH RECOVERY AND RESILIENCY ART SHOW

These works of art come from the heart.
They were created by youth from around the state of Utah who struggle with addiction, mental health challenges, or have experienced life in foster care.

This art represents their experiences in mental health resiliency and substance abuse recovery.

DEC. 17TH THROUGH JAN. 6TH
